Disclaimer

- This presentation contains forward-looking statements that reflect management's current views with respect to certain future events and potential financial performance. Although Fiskars believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, no assurance can be given that such expectations will prove to have been correct. Accordingly, results could differ materially from those set out in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors.
- Important factors that may cause such a difference for Fiskars include, but are not limited to: (i) the macroeconomic development and consumer confidence in the key markets, (ii) change in the competitive climate, (iii) change in the regulatory environment and other government actions (iv) change in interest rate and foreign exchange rate levels and (v) internal operating factors.
- This presentation does not imply that Fiskars has undertaken to revise these forward-looking statements, beyond what is required by applicable law or applicable stock exchange regulations if and when circumstances arise that will lead to changes compared to the date when these statements were provided.

Key takeaways

Significant increase in net sales and operating profit despite ongoing business integrations

Turnaround of the watering business has progressed faster than originally planned and the business contributed positively to our earnings already in 2016

Strong Q4 driven by Scandinavian Living and Functional businesses

Fiskars is focusing on building global businesses and brands, and in line with this, we have divested businesses that do not fit our strategy

Europe & Asia-Pacific Q4 highlights

- The economic situation in Europe improved slightly from the previous quarter
- Consumer confidence remained stable in Europe, with more optimistic expectations balanced by concerns about unemployment
- The challenging department store and distributor environment persisted in Japan, partly balanced by increased levels of tourism in Asia
- Net sales for the region increased driven by the Functional and Scandinavian Living businesses, supported by Fiskars, Iittala and Royal Copenhagen branded products
- Black Friday sales activities, a successful Christmas season, and the launch of Finland 100 anniversary products contributed to the increase in net sales during the quarter
- The adjusted operating profit for the segment increased year-on-year driven by the Scandinavian Living and Functional businesses as well as increased efficiencies

* Using comparable exchange rates net sales in the Europe & Asia-Pacific segment increased by 3.3% in Q4 2016

 Using comparable exchange rates and excluding the acquired English & Crystal Living business in the first half of 2016 net sales in the Europe & Asia-Pacific segment increased by 0.5% in 2016

Americas Q4 highlights

- The economic situation in the Americas continued showing modest growth during the fourth quarter 2016
- While the challenges in the retail channel and department stores continued, e-commerce demonstrated growth
- The retail environment was driven by promotional campaigns in the quarter
- Consumer confidence increased, supported by favorable employment reports
- Comparable net sales increased, supported by both the Functional and Outdoor businesses
- Net sales in the garden, watering and outdoor categories increased

* Using comparable exchange rates and excluding the divested container gardening business and Spring USA, net sales in the Americas increased by 3.9% in Q4 2016

 Using comparable exchange rates and excluding the divested container gardening business and Spring USA in Q4 2015, as well the acquired English & Crystal Living business in the first half of 2016 net sales in the Americas decreased by 0.1% in FY 2016

Fiskars Outlook 2017

- Fiskars expects the Group's net sales excl. net sales of divested businesses in 2016 and adjusted EBITA to increase from the previous year
- In 2016, the Group's net sales excluding the divested businesses amounted to EUR 1,180 million and the adjusted EBITA amounted to EUR 107 million
- Fiskars operates globally, with a considerable part of the business in the U.S. Translation exposure may have a material impact on reported financial figures
- The fourth quarter is significant both in terms of net sales and adjusted operating profit. The adjusted EBITA excludes restructuring costs, impairment charges, integration related costs, and gain and loss from the sale of businesses

Long-term financial targets

Fiskars has established long-term financial targets that cover four areas: growth, profitability, capital structure and dividend:

Growth: The average annual net sales growth to exceed 5%, through a combination of organic growth and targeted acquisitions

Profitability: EBITA margin to exceed 10%

Capital structure: Net gearing* below 100%

Dividend: Fiskars aims to distribute a stable, over time increasing dividend, to be paid biannually

* Net gearing ratio is the ratio of interest-bearing debt, less interest-bearing receivables and cash and bank equivalents, divided by total equity.
