- Net sales increased by 10.1% to EUR 332.6 million (Q1 2021: 302.1)
- Comparable net sales¹ increased by 13.5% to EUR 332.6 million (293.0)

OUTLOOK FOR 2022 (UNCHANGED):

Fiskars expects the comparable EBIT to increase from 2021 (2021: EUR 154.2 million).

There are ongoing challenges in global supply chains, as well as raw material and energy price inflation. While the company has managed to mitigate these factors, they continue to pose a risk for 2022 performance. The company also expects that there will be volatility between the quarters due to timing differences between cost inflation and respective mitigating actions.

1) Comparable net sales excludes the impact of exchange rates, acquisitions and divestments

2) Items affecting comparability in EBIT include items such as restructuring costs, impairment or provisions charges and releases, integration-related costs, and gains and losses from the sale of businesses

CEO's review

We started the year with healthy demand and solid momentum in our main markets, and we delivered our eighth consecutive quarter of net sales growth. The organic, currency neutral growth of more than 13% was especially driven by our business area Terra, although both the Vita and Crea business areas also contributed to net sales growth. Growth was profitable, with a comparable EBIT margin of 15.6%.

We continued to execute our growth strategy, with a clear focus on our four transformation levers: commercial excellence; direct-to-consumer (DTC); the U.S.; and China. We started the execution of our growth strategy in 2021, and we have already been able to deliver tangible and sustainable results based on it. Our gross margin (excl. IAC) improved to 45.6%, our DTC sales grew 14% despite some short-term lockdowns in China due to Covid-19, and we grew in the U.S. and China, with a 16% and 53% increase in net sales, respectively.

We also continued to invest in our capabilities to ensure long-term competitiveness. Our strategic spending on digital acceleration and DTC growth was approx. EUR 5 million, and we continued recruiting critical capabilities, especially in e-commerce and in our own retail.

As of February, we have seen significant challenges in global supply chains and accelerated, broad-based input cost inflation, driven both by the war in Ukraine and Covid-19-related disruptions in China.

Although visibility on longer-term developments remains limited, we believe the actions we have either taken or are taking will enable us to mitigate the negative impacts of input cost inflation this year. However, we expect there will be volatility between the quarters due to timing differences between cost inflation and respective mitigating actions.

We have been able to serve our customers and avoid any major product availability challenges, which has been a competitive advantage for us. Our focus is now on ensuring the shipments for the rest of the year.

We made some structural changes in Q1. In February, we closed the divestment of our North American watering business. This transaction was announced in December 2021.

AHLSTRÖM
President & CEO

In March, we announced that we have decided to withdraw completely from the Russian market due to Russia's attack on Ukraine, which we condemn in the strongest possible terms. The exit from the Russian market will not have a significant impact on our 2022 results, and the one-time impacts of the withdrawal are included in our Q1 Items Affecting Comparability.

We also took several important steps towards our circular economy target of having the majority of our net sales from circular products and services by 2030. In Q1 2022, 5% of our net sales were generated from product ranges made from recycled materials.

Consumers and third parties acknowledged our sustainability work. In Q1 2022, we received several external awards and recognitions including our listing on CDP's 2021 Supplier Engagement Leaderboard, and a platinum level sustainability rating from Ecovadis. Also, our Fiskars brand was recognized in the Sustainable Brand Index 2022, which was published in March 2022. According to consumers, Fiskars is the most sustainable brand within the hobby and leisure category, and the 4th most sustainable brand overall in Finland.

We also made changes to our Fiskars Group leadership team to further support the implementation of our growth strategy. Charlene Patten Zappa was appointed Executive Vice President, Business Area Terra, and Anna Mindelöf was appointed Chief People Officer. Additionally, the Consumer Experience and Communications function was merged into the Business Areas and other functions to simplify the organization, accelerate business execution and improve accountability.

Although the business environment is getting more unpredictable and volatile, and not all impacts on our business can be foreseen, we continue to execute our growth strategy with confidence.

Based on the building blocks we have in place to execute our growth strategy, and the actions we are taking to mitigate current challenges in the business environment, we reiterate our full year 2022 guidance of improving comparable EBIT.

Fiskars Group's consolidated net sales increased by 10.1% to EUR 332.6 million (Q1 2021: 302.1). Comparable net sales increased by 13.5%, driven especially by Terra. Strong demand, especially in the USA and China, supported the net sales growth.

FISKARS GROUP COMPARABLE EBIT IN Q1 2022

Fiskars Group's comparable EBIT increased by 11.1% to EUR 51.8 million (Q1 2021: 46.6).

The comparable EBIT increased in Terra and remained on the same level in Vita and Crea.

The EBIT improvement was led by broad-based net sales growth and gross margin improvement, partly offset by a marketing and selling cost increases in Vita and Crea.

OPERATING ENVIRONMENT IN Q1 2022

In the first quarter, demand for Fiskars Group's products was solid across all main markets and especially in the categories in which Royal Copenhagen, Wedgwood, and Fiskars (gardening) operate. Demand was strongest in the Group's key growth markets, i.e., in China and the USA.

The current geopolitical situation in Europe escalated by the Russian attack on Ukraine has led to further supply chain disruptions and increased raw material, energy and transport costs. The Group succeeded in largely mitigating these negative impacts in the first quarter, and it continues to mitigate them throughout the year. However, the Group expects that the ongoing actions will start offsetting the input cost inflation mainly in the second half of the year.

Although the Covid-19 pandemic business impacts have mostly stabilised in Europe and the Americas, the new variant of the virus worsened the situation towards the end of the quarter in China, especially in Shanghai. The store and distribution centre lockdowns in March did not significantly impact the first quarter results.

Reporting segments

This interim report reflects Fiskars Group's organizational structure, which features three Business Areas (BA): Vita, Terra and Crea. Fiskars Group's four primary reporting segments are Vita, Terra, Crea and Other. In addition, Fiskars Group reports net sales for three geographical areas: Europe, Americas and Asia-Pacific.

BA Vita offers premium and luxury products for the tableware, drinkware and interior categories. It consists of brands such as Iittala, Royal Copenhagen, Waterford and Wedgwood.

BA Terra consists of the gardening, watering, and outdoor categories. The brands include Fiskars and Gerber.

BA Crea consists of the scissors and creating, as well as the cooking, categories, mainly with the Fiskars brand.

The Other segment contains the Group's investment portfolio, the real estate unit, corporate headquarters and shared services.

Consumer everyday

We launched the new Fiskars Group brand identity in early 2022. This includes our updated purpose, pioneering design to make the everyday extraordinary, which focuses on the importance and impact of good design. The new identity also includes a clear description of Fiskars Group as the global home of design-driven brands for indoor and outdoor living, as well as visual elements such as our new logo.

Our Fiskars brand's iconic orange-handled scissors celebrate their 55th anniversary in 2022, and we continue to grow the product family. In Q1, the brand expanded its recycled ReNew Collection with five new products. The ReNew line now features seven purposefully designed scissors which are made from recycled and renewable materials and are 100% recyclable.

littala also celebrates a milestone in 2022: Kaj Franck's design classic, the Teema tableware series, celebrates its 70th anniversary. littala has marked the occasion by introducing three new colors to the collection: vintage-inspired blue and brown, as well as neutral and serene linen. The marketing communications around the anniversary are part of the brand's new values-led communication platform, standing for the future generations who will continue to enjoy these timeless products.

In February, littala announced a new tableware line that will be used globally by Finnair, the Finnish network airline. The "Kuulas" tableware has been designed exclusively for Finnair by Harri Koskinen, one of Finland's best-known contemporary designers.

Royal Copenhagen launched a new service, Bespoke, which offers consumers the opportunity to personalize a selection of cups with their name or initials. Each cup is made to order, and the name or initials are hand-painted inside the cup by the talented Royal Copenhagen painters.

Gerber launched its new, seasonal Spring Collection, featuring a selection of outdoor gear designed to inspire and empower consumers who seek adventure.

The Collection campaign allows us to highlight new products as heroes, but also merchandise existing products in a new and impactful way – providing a robust assortment of products for our consumers while positioning Gerber with a broader audience. Early results are encouraging: existing products featured in the collections have seen a 125% sales increase on gerbergear.com.

Risks and business uncertainties

Fiskars Group's business, net sales, and financial performance may be affected by several uncertainties. Fiskars Group has presented the overall business risks and risk management in its Annual Report and on the company's website at www.fiskarsgroup.com/investors.

Political uncertainty, including trade disputes, sanctions, import restrictions and geopolitical tensions, may have a material adverse impact on the net sales and profit of Fiskars Group.

The Covid-19 pandemic has impacted consumers' lives in terms of changes in disposable income, purchasing choices and consumer behavior, for example. Continuing safety concerns around Covid-19 may negatively impact sales in the Group's physical stores.

The ongoing Covid-19-related restrictions in China, especially in Shanghai, have a negative impact on our local business due to store lockdowns, and they may have broader negative impacts on global supply chains if the restrictions continue for several months.

Global supply chains in general are impacted by various disturbances caused by the war in Ukraine and the pandemic, which may affect Fiskars Group's operations. Ongoing global logistics challenges and increases in shipping costs, as well as sudden fluctuations in the price or availability of the most important commodities, may have a negative impact on profitability.

People are at the core of Fiskars Group's strategy and are our most important asset and enabler. An inability to attract and retain talented and committed professionals in the competitive employee market may have an adverse impact on the achievement of Fiskars Group's strategic objectives. Employee engagement is promoted notably by providing opportunities for professional growth through leadership training and skills development and by committing to an inclusive culture.

For the gardening category in the Terra segment, the second quarter of the year is seasonally the most important. The back-to-school and holiday seasons are important for the sales performance of Crea during the second half of the year. For the Vita segment, the fourth quarter of the year is the most important. Any negative developments related to product availability, demand or increased costs in manufacturing or logistics during the important seasons may significantly affect the full-year result. The seasonality of demand may differ from a typical year due to the current volatile market conditions and depending on the development of the pandemic.

Demand for some of Fiskars Group's products depends on the weather, particularly garden tools during the spring or snow tools during the winter. Unfavorable weather conditions such as a cold and rainy spring and summer and no snow in the winter can have a negative impact on the sale of these products, whereas favorable conditions can boost their sales.

Fiskars Group depends increasingly on centralized information technology systems that hold critical business information. Cyberattacks may therefore impact Fiskars Group's business and operations. The company mitigates IT-related risks by applying high-quality IT solutions and maintaining, developing, and testing their function and integrity with leading service and technology providers.

Fiskars Group operates globally, with a considerable part of the business in the U.S. and several suppliers in Asia. Protectionism, political uncertainty, geopolitical tensions, and consumer concerns about products' country of origin may impact Fiskars Group's business and operations.

With a significant part of the business in the U.S. and in other countries outside the eurozone, Fiskars Group is exposed to fluctuations in foreign currency rates. A weakening of the U.S. dollar or other currencies relative to the euro may have a material impact on the reported financial figures as a result of the translation exposure. Less than 20% of Fiskars Group's commercial cash flows are exposed to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

Fiskars Group entities are subject to tax audits in several countries. It is possible that tax audits may lead to reassessments of taxes.

FINANCIAL ITEMS, NET RESULT AND CASH FLOW IN Q1 2022

Other financial income and expenses amounted to EUR 0.7 million (Q1 2021: -4.3, including -6.2 million of interest related to the tax dispute). Foreign exchange differences accounted for EUR 0.1 million (0.9) of financial items.

Profit before taxes was EUR 42.6 million (41.9) in the first quarter of 2022. Income taxes for the first quarter were EUR -11.2 million (-33.7, including 22.1 million related to the tax reassessment case from year 2014 regarding forgiven intra-company loans from 2003, where the company was obligated to pay 28.3 million in additional tax, interest and punitive increases). Earnings per share were EUR 0.38 (0.10, including the negative impact EUR 0.35 per share related to the tax reassessment case).

The first-quarter cash flow from operating activities before financial items and taxes amounted to EUR -55.9 million (Q1 2021: 10.7). The change was a result of the change in working capital. Cash flow from financial items and taxes amounted to EUR -4.9 (-11.8).

Cash flow from investing activities was EUR 34.8 million (-4.2), including EUR 9.4 million of capital expenditure on fixed assets and EUR 43.9 million of proceeds from sale of assets held for sale. Cash flow from financing activities was EUR 42.3 million (-26.8), including EUR 82.9 million of change in current debt, EUR -7.0 million of payments of lease liabilities, EUR -2.6 million purchase of treasury shares, and EUR -31.0 million of dividends paid. The comparison figure from Q1 2021 included EUR 3.4 million of change in current debt, EUR 0.1 million of proceeds of non-current debt, EUR -6.6 million of payments of lease liabilities and EUR -24.5 million of dividends paid.

Capital expenditure for the first quarter totaled EUR 9.4 million (6.1), related to retail, supply chain and IT investments. Depreciation, amortization and impairment were EUR 15.1 million (15.1) in the first quarter.

BALANCE SHEET AND FINANCING IN Q1 2022

Fiskars Group's working capital totaled EUR 205.5 million (130.5) at the end of March. The equity ratio was 54% (54%), and net gearing was 26% (25%).

Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the period totaled EUR 48.4 million (31.1). Net interest-bearing debt amounted to EUR 207.1 million (180.3), of which leases classified as interest-bearing debt under IFRS 16 accounted for EUR 107.0 million (95.0).

Excluding leasing debt, short-term borrowing totaled EUR 147.9 million (65.3), and long-term borrowing EUR 0.6 million (51.1). Short-term borrowing consisted mainly of a term loan and commercial paper maturing in 2022.

In addition to outstanding loans, Fiskars Group had EUR 250 million of unutilized long-term committed credit facilities. A commercial paper program of EUR 400 million with Nordic banks was partly in use.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The Group's research and development expenditure totaled EUR 5.0 million (Q1 2021: 3.7) in the first quarter of 2022, equivalent to 1.5% (1.2%) of net sales.

PERSONNEL

The average number of full-time equivalent employees (FTE) was 6,164 (Q1 2021: 5,908) in the first quarter. At the end of the quarter, the Group employed 6,515 (6,354) employees. The divestment of the North American watering business reduced number of full-time equivalent employees by 150.

SUSTAINABILITY

Fiskars Group is committed to generating the majority of its net sales from circular products and services by 2030. An important step on this journey was taken in March, when the Fiskars brand launched its pan care service in Finland. Instead of buying a new pan, consumers can now bring their old ceramic coated pans to our stores for recoating. The Fiskars pan care service restores the pan's best features and extends its lifespan. The pan care service was piloted in 2021, and after the successful pilot, the service is now being scaled up.

To support this same circular economy target, several Fiskars Group brands have developed various products made of recycled materials. In Q1 2022, 5% of our net sales were generated from product ranges made from recycled materials. The Group also improved recycled product mapping and added new categories to its circular economy reporting.

Fiskars Group is transforming into a carbon neutral business. We focus on reducing greenhouse gas emissions through energy efficiency measures and the use of low carbon or carbon neutral energy sources, for example. In Q1 2022, Scope 1 and 2 greenhouse gas emissions decreased by 5% compared to 2021 and by 43% compared to the 2017 base year.

Consumers and third parties have acknowledged Fiskars Group's sustainability work. In Q1 2022, we received several external awards and recognitions. In February, Fiskars Group was listed on CDP's 2021 Supplier Engagement Leaderboard. This recognition was granted for Fiskars Group's efforts to measure and reduce climate risk within the supply chain.

Also, in Q1, Fiskars Group achieved a platinum level sustainability rating from Ecovadis, which is a trusted provider of business sustainability ratings assessing companies based on their performance in environmental issues, labor and human rights, ethics, and sustainable procurement. The platinum EcoVadis 2022 Medal places Fiskars Group among the top 1 per cent of companies assessed within its industry. Building a strong supplier network that will help Fiskars Group meet its business and sustainability requirements and expectations, as well as our company values, is important for us.

The Fiskars brand was recognized in the Sustainable Brand Index 2022, which was published in March 2022. According to consumers, Fiskars is the most sustainable brand within the hobby and leisure category, and the 4th most sustainable brand overall in Finland.

Protecting human rights is an essential part of Fiskars Group's sustainability work, and human rights management was one of our key priorities in 2021. Human rights are essential and non-negotiable for Fiskars Group. Fiskars Group condemns Russia's attack on Ukraine in the strongest possible terms. The hearts and minds of Fiskars Group employees are with those most affected by the war and the humanitarian crisis it is causing. Together with its brands, Fiskars Group has decided to make an initial donation of EUR 180,000 to support UNICEF's response in Ukraine. In addition, Fiskars Group will match donations made by its employees to UNICEF.

CHANGES IN ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT

On 18 January 2022, Fiskars Group appointed Charlene Patten Zappa as Executive Vice President, Business Area Terra, and a member of the Fiskars Group Leadership Team. Charlene started in her position on 18 January 2022 and reports to the President and CEO. James Brouillard, previously Executive Vice President, Business Area Terra, decided to leave the company.

Additionally, the Consumer Experience and Communications function was merged into the Business Areas and other functions. Consequently, Chief Consumer and Communication Officer Tina Andersson decided to leave the company.

Anna Mindelöf started in her position on 1 March 2022. Niklas Lindholm, Chief People Officer, decided to leave the company.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2022

The Annual General Meeting ("AGM") of shareholders of Fiskars Corporation was held at Itämerentori 2, Helsinki, on 16 March 2022. OUTLOOK FOR 2022 (UNCHANGED)

Fiskars expects the comparable EBIT to increase from 2021 (2021: EUR 154.2 million).

There are ongoing challenges in global supply chains, as well as raw material and energy price inflation. While the company has managed to mitigate these factors, they continue to pose a risk for 2022 performance. The company also expects that there will be volatility between the quarters due to timing differences between cost inflation and respective mitigating actions.
